NO WORD FROM STORM.

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The U. S. weather bureau announced here tonight that while no reports are available from the hurricane area, indications are that the tropical storm continues its slow northward movement and is centered in approximately latitude 25, longitude 70. Watches have been sent to vessels to exercise caution.

Miss Elizabeth Dudley returned yesterday from Charlottesville, where she has been in attendance at the second session of the University of Virginia summer school.

Gardner Council President Townes Is Vice President

The new city council assembled last night and organized for its four-year term after being sworn in by City Clerk Moss and filing returns on their expenses in the recent election. None of the members had any expense, the returns revealed.

All of the members were present, the body being composed of W. E. Gardner, Edward Meade, B. F. Carter, F. W. Townes, Guy Walton, William P. Boatwright, A. T. Gunn, B. J. Hurd and Frank McFall.

William P. Boatwright was elected temporary president of the council and he at once called for permanent nominations of a president and a vice-president of the council. Mr. McFall put in nomination W. E. Gardner as president. Mr. Townes seconded the motion and as there were no other nominations Mr. Gardner was elected to the position which in municipal importance comes second only to that of the mayor. Mr. Gardner on assuming the chair, expressed thanks for the honor and promised to do the best he could though, he added, it would be hard to follow in the footsteps of the preceding president, Col. A. R. Carrington.

Mr. Meade nominated Mr. Townes for vice-president of the council and was elected unanimously without opposition.

Announce Committees Soon.

On the election of these two officers, Mr. Gardner stated that he would announce his committees within the next few days, adding that it was important that they get together and organize their work as soon as possible. He also suggested that the new council without delay make a tour as a body of all the municipal properties in order that their condition now may be seen and that the members may become familiar with the work that is being done in them.

The city auditor, however, reminded the council president that city officials and employees could not draw their last month's pay until a finance committee chairman has been appointed to counterbalance the vouchers.

Mr. Meade said that he had already given some thought to the committees. He named F. W. Townes and Frank McFall who, with Mr. Gardner, will constitute the municipal commission on the council. This done, no reason could be given why the other committees should not be named and Mr. Gardner in conference with Mr. Townes named the following:

Public Works: Guy Walton, Edward Meade, R. J. Hurd.

Public Welfare: R. F. Carter, W. P. Boatwright and A. T. Gunn.

Organization.

The three committees assembled immediately and Mr. Townes was elected chairman of the finance committee. Mr. Meade was elected chairman of the public works committee, and Mr. Walton its vice chairman.

Mr. Townes continued as chairman of the public welfare committee and Mr. Boatwright vice chairman.

During the evening the council followed the time-honored plan of drawing straws for council seats. Mayor Wooding was present and addressed the new council briefly, declaring that the body which has just passed from existence was "the most businesslike Danville has ever had."

He said he had regulated the city on closely. He had regulated the city on closely. He had regulated the city on closely.

County Abolishes Traffic Officers

At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Pittsylvania, held in Chambersburg yesterday, the resignation of Traffic Officer R. Fuller, of Calhoun, was received and accepted by the body.

A resolution was then introduced and adopted providing for the abolition of traffic officers for the county, the resolution to be effective after September 15th. The other two county traffic officers besides the one who has just resigned are J. W. Pugh and R. W. Rowles, both of whom will be affected by the action of the board.

The reasons stated by Mr. Fuller for his resignation are not definitely known, but it is assumed that it had to do with the fact that Mr. Fuller was recently charged with violation of the prohibition laws.

Aside from the consideration of these two matters, the remainder of the proceedings of the board was largely of the usual routine character coming before the monthly meetings.

DOVE COMMANDERY, K. T. TO ELECT ITS OFFICERS

Dove Commandery, No. 7, Knights Templar, after a summer of inactivity, will meet on Thursday evening, September 4, in its assembly, Masonic Temple, the principal business being the annual election of officers. While the hour is not stated, it is likely to be 7 o'clock, the usual hour for Templar meetings. The present officers are serving members to attend and to participate in the meeting.

The present commander, J. Shields Hays, is nearing the end of his term, and it is expected that the commandery will elect a new commander and several other officers.

It is usual to advance the general session to the post of eminent commandery, which has declined the honor of being made a service, and the final session, which is the usual advance session, will occur. Should the officers advance the time, the only real contest will be for the lower line officer in the club to the commandery.

CAUTIONS AUTHOR CHECKS HIS THOUGHTS AND WORDS

MUNICH, Sept. 1.—Crown prince Rupprecht of Bavaria will soon publish a book of cautions dealing with the use of words and thoughts. He is a very cautious man, however, and it is not surprising that he has written a book on this subject.

The book is a collection of cautions which the crown prince has written for his own use and for the use of his subjects. It is a very interesting book and is expected to be a best seller.

VISIT SOUTH BOSTON

A group of about 100 people, including many of the prominent citizens of Danville, visited South Boston yesterday. They were on a tour of the city and were very much interested in the sights and scenery.

The group was led by a local guide and spent the day in visiting the various points of interest in South Boston. They were very much impressed by the beauty of the city and the hospitality of the people.

The tour was a very successful one and the group is expected to return to Danville very soon. They were very much enjoyed the trip and the people of South Boston.

IT'S "BIG TIM'S" WIFE'S DAY NOW

MRS. FLORENCE MURPHY (LEFT) AND INSPECTOR WILLIAM F. FAHY.

By GEORGE BRITT
CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—"Am I says to Fahy, 'There'll be plenty in the papers about you one of these days.'"

The reminiscence accompanies a gleaming smile in the baby-blue eyes of Florence Murphy, lady Amazon wife of "Big Tim" Murphy.

All the four years since William F. Fahy came to Chicago, she had known him as the relentless postoffice inspector, the vindictive personal foe, working and scheming to send her husband to Leavenworth penitentiary for mail robbery and keep him there.

His conviction of Murphy was the peak feat of his brilliant career. And now Fahy, the prosecutor, is participating in the $2,000,000 Ransome mail robbery last June and suspected as the inside master mind of half a dozen other big thefts. Mrs. Murphy is quick to suggest the turn of events confirms "Big Tim's" plea he was the victim of a "frame-up."

"I always said Fahy was a double-crosser," says Mrs. Murphy, comfortable and complacent at the news as she sits in her husband's old office where she carries on his work as director of the Gas House Workers' Union.

Charges He Persecuted Her
"I'm not surprised. You know he was always jolly and pleasant in court and no would shake 'Tim's' hand and say, 'There's nothing personal in this; I'm just working for the government.'"

But behind the trial was he told somebody, talking about me, that 'Tim' would be in six months before she'll divorce him and be off with another man. I didn't tell 'Tim' about it, because he would have gone after him right in the courtroom. But I went up to him one day in the corridor, and he surely did hurry to deny it.

"And I say, 'Listen, if Tim Murphy is kept in prison a hundred years, I'll be waiting for him, because his little toe is more to me than you or any other man in the world.' Tim has been in 18 months now, and I've been to see him every month. He's eligible for parole, and if it hadn't been for Fahy and his framed charges about that robbery at Pullman, he'd be out."

"Fahy hasn't stopped at Tim, either. He told a young fellow we know not very long ago that he'd like to get suit I say, 'Listen, if Tim Murphy is kept in prison a hundred years, I'll be waiting for him, because his little toe is more to me than you or any other man in the world.' Tim has been in 18 months now, and I've been to see him every month. He's eligible for parole, and if it hadn't been for Fahy and his framed charges about that robbery at Pullman, he'd be out."

"You know how they did me when Tim was arrested on the Dearborn operation. And Fahy and his squad ransacked our house. I don't know how it did, but when I got back nearly everything was missing—the pearl-handled knives and torse were at a wedding present and table linen and some champagne and even 85 cents from the pocketbook of our servant girl."

He Led Search Himself
"I'd like to see him looking out from behind the bars now."

The arrest of Fahy was the most spectacular incident in the memory of the present generation of postoffice inspectors. Fahy himself, trusted, keen, lone-wolf solver of many a dark mystery, led the search for the Ransome mail robbers. He helped make some of the arrests and pointed out where there had been a traitorous directing brain within the postoffice department to make the crime possible.

A tip from one of the prisoners to Chief Inspector A. E. Garner, suggested Fahy. Almost immediately the chief called in aide from distant territory, unknown to Fahy. They found Fahy in conference with James Murray, wealthy politician arrested for the robbery charge, but out on bail.

They set a trap. One of the inspectors was to approach Murray as a prospective buyer for bonds taken in the robbery. Then Fahy was told of the move. No one else knew. By the time the buyer saw Murray, he had been tipped off. Fahy must have walked into the trap.

"There's more evidence than that," says Inspector Claranah of Baltimore who came here to direct the inquiry. "The case is sewed up."

PURSE SNATCHERS PREY ON FOREIGNERS IN MOSCOW

MOSCOW, Sept. 1.—Russian pickpockets are particularly active and audacious at the present time, in spite of efforts of the police to suppress them. Scores of these petty thieves have been arrested since the revolution, but the number of them still at large is so great that citizens themselves are asked to make arrests whenever they detect a pickpocket.

American visitors, some of whom have been robbed, have adopted the expedient of carrying their money and valuables in waistbands under their clothing, while others, to foil the pickpockets, have avoided riding on trams and trains. One American was recently relieved of $700 in a church.

INFANTRYMAN GETS 20 YEARS

(By The Associated Press.)
MANILA, Sept. 1.—Thomas Riveral, 27th Infantry, alleged ringleader of a band of fifteen Filipino scouts, fourteen of whom were found guilty of mutiny at an army court martial here today, was sentenced to twenty years in prison.

Sentence was imposed on all of the convicted scouts today after the prosecution rested its case for the fifteen minutes allowed for argument. The court then found 14 of the 15 scouts guilty of causing mutiny. The remaining case was undecided.

Ten of the defendants were sentenced to five years in prison, two were given ten year sentences and another received a fifteen year term.

LITTLE HOPE OF REOPENING MOSCOW MACHINERY PLANT

MOSCOW, Sept. 1.—An echo of America's important part in developing Russian industry prior to the Bolshevik revolution was heard recently when application was made to the Supreme Economic Council of the Soviet government by the State Metal Department to reopen the huge plant near Moscow of the International Harvester Company. The works, which before the war produced annually nearly $5,000,000 worth of farming machinery of the American standard, have been idle since 1920.

The sum of $2,500,000, however, is needed to put the scheme in operation, and in view of the present financial stringency existing in Russia, doubt is expressed in official quarters as to the realization of the plan.

Y. M. C. A. Canvass To Raise $75,000

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association held at the Association building, it was decided after due consideration to undertake a campaign to subscribe the sum of $75,000 with which to construct a wing enlarging the present structure and to make certain needed internal changes in the building completed in 1908.

This decision of the Board is merely the sequence of an agreement reached by the board after careful examination of the Association's imperative needs last Spring. At that time it was not deemed opportune to undertake such a canvass, but it is the judgment of the directors that the carrying out of the enlargement plans cannot longer be deferred without detriment to the future growth and development of the association.

After due consideration October 20th was fixed as the opening date for the inauguration of the canvass, with the figures named as the goal. Details of the plans for the canvass are yet to be worked out, but these will be arranged during the ensuing month and a half.

S. A. Ackley, international secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was present at the meeting and addressed the directors, approving the effort to subscribe the fund deemed requisite for a building adequate to the needs of the association.

While the precise amount of the contribution by the International committee toward raising the sum desired, is not yet authoritative and announced, it is understood that in view of the approval of the undertaking and of the plans for the addition, that organization will aid in the effort. All the details in connection with the canvass will be made known before the canvass is actually begun.

FOUR BILLION MATCHES USED DAILY IN AMERICA

PETERBORO, N. H. Sept. 1.—The United States uses more than 1,500,000,000 matches made out of wood every year. (This is about 37 matches a day for every man, woman and child in the country, based on a population of 110,000,000. Recent statistics from Europe have placed the per capita consumption there at 14 matches a day.) The world output costs $200,000,000 and reaches a total of 4,675,850,000,000 matches a year. Eight million tons of paper are being used in the United States every year. These are some of the interesting statements made by Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Tree Association of Washington in a speech tonight at the New England Conference which continues through Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. Pack pointed out that this is the time to "sell forestry" to the people of the United States. He urged the conference to get down to facts, saying that the way to get the American people interested in this vital economic problem of where wood was to come from was to talk to them in terms that they could quickly grasp.

LEAGUE PLANS TO CARE WELL FOR JOURNALISTS

GENEVA, Sept. 1.—The League of Nations is assuming that some day virtually all the nations of the world will be affiliated with it, and it is planning a building program to meet all possible ultimate demands.

The new conference hall will seat 65 national delegations, allowing five persons to represent each country, and have in addition ample space for secretaries, galleries, smoking rooms, cloak rooms, vestibules, committee rooms and general offices.

The press is to be well cared for, according to present plans. Reporters will have a special gallery in the assembly hall, a room where delegates may come to a large writing room, and special facilities for the installation of radio, telephone and telegraph instruments.

The controlling idea of the League is that the organization belongs to the people, even its assemblies are composed of representatives of governments. Hence, it is held, all possible steps should be taken to reach the public through the press so that the people may know what the League is doing. The explanation of purpose to provide extensive accommodations for journalists.

COUNTY BOARD OF WELFARE MAKES APPEAL FOR MONEY

The following communication from a well known citizen and official of Pittsylvania county and the accompanying it is self-explanatory: The Bee and Register Publishing Co., Danville, Virginia.

Gentlemen:—
I herewith enclose a petition or an appeal to the citizens of Pittsylvania county and ask that you co-operate with us in this by giving us publicity in your two papers and, if consistent with your ideas and the policy of your papers, I would appreciate an editorial on the subject.

You have said right much of late on the almonable fee system of our state, for which I want to congratulate you and enlist you and your valuable papers in a war to eliminate the curse from our state.

In my judgment, there is no evil so great and none so contaminating to the administration of justice as is the dear old fee system. We will never progress as we should until we correct this evil.

Our citizens should be taught to honor and respect our laws, our officers should be taught to stand upon our highways, streets and alleys as a sign board directing our citizens in the right direction and when they will not heed the warning, then and only then should they be "pinched." This cannot be done under the dear old fee system.

Now, in conclusion, I do not feel that I would be doing justice to myself and the fine system of our state if I did not pay it my respect. Why should a county have to collect fine money for the Literary fund, why not put it in the general fund and let our legislators appropriate it out as other funds? The answer is easy, the taxpayers and the thinking public will wake up some day and demand a change and no one can bring about this change quicker than the public press, so go to it. Here is one with you.

The petition or appeal follows: To the Citizens of Pittsylvania county. On June the 1st your board of supervisors appropriated $2000 to pay the salary of H. P. Bragg, superintendent of public welfare of our county. The board of public welfare agreed to furnish him a car to cover the county. This we have done and now owe a balance of $230 on it. Your board of public welfare is composed of men and women of your county well known to you who are giving of their time to this great cause without one cent of pay, and they should not be allowed to pay this debt. I am sure that here are ladies and gentlemen in our county who would be glad to help liquidate this obligation, if their attention was called to it.

If you feel interested in the delinquent, aged and infirm, send us a contribution. If you contribute more than is necessary to finish paying for the car, your board will use it to good advantage, as they are always up against propositions in which they need the money. The emergency cases they have to meet conditions, even if they have to pull the money out of their own pockets. This we should not permit them to do as they are already giving unstintingly of their valuable time. Any amount will be appreciated, and I assure you that it is, for a worthy cause, make all remittance to W. Howard Dodson, of Schoolfield, Va., or Dr. L. E. Fullmer, of Danville, Va., and same will be acknowledged.

Yours sincerely,
B. W. DODSON, Justice of the Peace and Domestic Relations Court of Pittsylvania Co.,
Beecher's Hall, Va.

Prince Sleeps Late After Being Out Until Early Hour

(By The Associated Press.)

SYOSSET, N. Y., Sept. 2.—The Prince of Wales began his day this afternoon having retired in the early morning hours after an evening spent at the home of one of his Long Island neighbors. The prince had been out since his landing when he had left the J. A. Burden home to spend an evening in company of only Major E. D. McCallie, his quarry, and one or two American friends.

The members of his staff who were with the prince last night were in bed at 11 o'clock this morning, according to members of the household. Nor had the prince arisen at that hour. It was reported that the prince had been at the home of Devereaux Milburn, American polo player, and returned to the Burden house at six o'clock this morning.

On previous visits to this country the prince often went out accompanied only by one of his equerries. His other aides some times waited anxiously long after midnight for his return.

Inspector Charlton of Scotland Yard who guards the prince closely excepting when he goes on one of his trips of diversion from formality, said today that the crush at the races yesterday was the first time the prince had ever been in such close contact with a crowd.

He said the prince got quite a thrill from the experience and remarked that it had been "rather good fun."

Marion Hollins Is Eliminated by Mrs. Dorothy Hurd

(By The Associated Press.)

MAYATT, N. Y., Sept. 2.—Miss Marion Hollins, of New York, one of the favorites for the national women's golf title, was eliminated from the title tournament today by another former champion, Mrs. Dorothy Campbell, of Philadelphia. The second round was a two-stymie and the missing of one putt of a yard, which cost Miss Hollins three holes and Mrs. Hurd's excellent recoveries from trouble were the main factors in the match. Mrs. Hurd won the turn in 41 where Mrs. Hurd was one up.

Mrs. F. C. Letts, Jr., of Chicago, was overcome by heat after playing nine holes with Mrs. J. Renwick of New York, on the 18th hole today.

COURT SESSION GETS UNDERWAY APPEALS HEARD

Layman Act Informations First to Be Disposed of by Judge Withers

The corporation court this morning got down to a working basis, the grand jury taking up the consideration of indictments and petit juries hearing appealed cases from the magistrate's court.

The court made no special charge to the grand jury, but pointed out its duties and obligations, whereupon it retired. It is composed of W. E. Hurd, W. Grady, foreman, W. E. Hurd, H. B. Trundle, J. H. Winnick, C. M. Mahan, C. S. Bruce, B. L. Belcher, E. P. Motley, P. L. Booth, J. J. Speer, O. L. Roach, R. Travis and T. L. Clark.

The first case disposed of this morning was an information alleging violation of the Layman Act by W. M. Childress alleged to have driven a car while intoxicated. He pleaded guilty and was fined $500, the jury sentence being suspended. The court reiterated its warning issued yesterday that in future persons so charged and pleading guilty will not escape the jail term. The court made it plain, however, that the warning was not retroactive and referred to future offenses committed. The informations which await disposition of the court include those against Sadie Myers, B. Estes, Willie Harris, J. W. McDaniel, E. J. Plummer and Trotter Williamson.

The court faced an unusual situation for a short while just before the midday recess was taken. M. H. Hatcher was charged with violating the Layman Act for the second time. The indictment, returned by the last grand jury, containing a plea for clemency. Mr. Hatcher was caught with about one pint of liquor by Police Officer G. M. Hays on Market street. The accused entered a plea of guilty before a jury of five and the officer's testimony was heard. The court then instructed the jury to find a verdict of guilty and to fix the punishment at $100 fine and six months in jail. The jury retired and soon returned with a penalty limited to a fine of $100. Judge Withers pointed out that the second time was not a new offense, but a continuation of the first and that it was not discretionary with the jury. The jury retired again and soon sent for the commonwealth's attorney but this is not permitted in the processes of law.

The jury returned in five minutes and the court found the law but that it must be carried out. He sent them back to reconsider. Five minutes later the jury returned, finding a final verdict of guilty with a penalty of $100 fine and six months in jail.

Counsel for the defense made a motion for a new trial but Judge Withers announced that he would continue this until the November term, stating also that he thought the commonwealth's attorney should take up the matter with the governor who is the only agency through which the accused now can be spared the jail term, asking him to suspend the sentence in view of the special request from the grand jury. Hatcher was bonded in the sum of $500 for appearance later.

The jury sitting in this case was composed of F. S. James, D. W. Ritchie, C. L. H. Brown, E. L. Ferguson and J. H. Brown.

Another case disposed of today was that of Walter Patterson charged with transporting liquor. He was fined $50 and sentenced to serve one month in jail, the sentence being suspended.

Triplett who has an appeal of liquor case pending in the Supreme court, was bonded in the sum of $1,000 for appearance in November.

The grand jury this morning indicted J. H. Hays and Beverly Davis who are charged with grand larceny. The sum mentioned in the indictment is $1,000 and Judge E. J. Harvey is the complaining witness. Other indictments returned at 1 o'clock this morning include: George C. Ramsey, grand larceny; Dewey Rutledge and Frank B. Baggett, grand larceny; Mary Brown, robbery; Richard W. Fuller for violating the prohibition law and George Scott on four counts of housebreaking. The grand jury re-assembled at half past two o'clock to consider six more indictments which they did not have time to reach at the morning session.

Three years of suffering with constipation. What happiness was his when Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, restored his health. But read his letter.

"Dear Sirs:

"This letter is what I think of your krumbled bran. I would not be without it for anything in the world. For three years I suffered during the day with constipation. I tried all kinds of medicines for constipation, and only got temporary relief. I was advised by a doctor to use Kellogg's Bran, and since I began using it, I have not had a day's constipation. I feel better now than I have for three years."

(By The Associated Press.)

BOSTON, Sept. 1.—Boston won the first game of the holiday double header 5 to 4 in 11 innings but the Giants made 17 hits off Lucas in the second game and piled up a winning score of 10 to 2. A bare handed catch by Young in deep right field off Thomas in the second contest, was sensational, robbing the batter of a likely home run with two on base. Low Wilson of the champions hurt his ankle in the first game sliding into third after tripping and had to be carried off the field.

CHICAGO LOSES BOTH

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 1.—Pittsburgh made it three straight from Chicago by taking both games of a double header today 5 to 4 and 4 to 2, the morning game going ten innings.

Aldridge weakened in the eighth, a home run by Moore and two singles netting two runs in the sixth inning. Aldridge retired Pittsburgh on three pitched balls, each batsman knocking flies to the outfield.

BRAMHAM WILL FORFEIT

PROTESTED BULL GAMES

(By The Associated Press.)

DURHAM, N. C., Sept. 1.—Seven baseball games won by the Durham club this season have been declared forfeited to Greensboro and High Point by Wm. G. Bramham, Piedmont League president, in an announcement made today. The decision means the loss of first place position in the standing of the club.

The games played with Greensboro on June 11, 17 and 18, and July 11 and 12 were forfeited to that club, while games played with High Point on July 4 and 8 were forfeited to that club because Lanenan, pitcher and Thompson, outfielder, played on the local club without signing contracts.

An appeal has been taken by the local club and the hearing has been set for Wednesday in Greensboro, attended by the directors of the league.

GREENSBORO TAKES BOTH

GAMES OF DOUBLEHEADER

FROM THE TOBACCONISTS

GREENSBORO, Sept. 1.—Danville lost both ends of the Labor day double header here to the locals this afternoon, the first by a score of 3 to 7 and the second, called in the eighth on account of darkness, by 5 to 0.

Westledge pitched great ball for the visitors to start the first game, striking out six men in succession in the first, second and third innings. However, he blew up in the third when two walks, two singles on a force out netted the locals two runs. Wildness proved his undoing.

In the second affair McWhirter was hit hard and opportunely while J. Harris held the visitors at his mercy, giving up one clean hit, a double by Cochlin in the fifth, and two scratches by Terry.

In the first game Regan, playing third for the Tobacconists, pulled an unassisted double play of a fresh nature. Carroll was hit by a pitched ball. Regan attempting to sacrifice, popped one up in front of the plate. Regan raced in, caught the ball and continued his spectacular and unnecessary racing to first base where he tripped and the bag before Carroll could return.

Zitzke walked seven times in succession in the two games, five times in the first, not being credited with a time at bat in that frame, and his first two times up in the second.

In the first game before he was taken out in the eighth Westledge hit four batsmen.

Dave Harris hit his 34th home run in the eighth of second game with none one.

The pathetic story in detail follows.

Murphy Wins 250 Mile Race, Wise Councillor Wins

SENATORS AND YANKS FIGHTING MAIN BOUT NOW

After Losing Three to Washington, New York Kept Even Yesterday

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Washington and New York are fighting the main bout in the American League with Pittsburgh and Brooklyn challenging the Giants in the National.

The world champions, following the loss of three of the first four rounds to their younger rivals after stubborn fighting, kept even in the next two yesterday and are still given an equal chance to retain their title because of experience which is expected to count in the last stages.

The veteran Goliath of the National, however, continues to show signs of aging less, which may fall in the last, encounter against the youthful Pirate challenger or the sturdy Robin who suddenly abandoned his role as a sparring partner and knocked the champion out of the ring in a three game series last week.

The Giants were the main hour team to fall in the labor day double-headers.

Washington took from the Athletics by scores of 5-3, 4-3, but the Yankees kept within a game and a half of the lead by trimming the Red Sox 3 to 0 and out of the game.

For the first time in months the National League race became closer than the American as Pittsburgh advanced to within one game and Brooklyn surged to within three of the Giants in the first game.

Graw's boys lost a decision in the eleventh to Boston, 5 to 4 but came back with a 10 to 8 victory.

The Pirates went into extra rounds to win from Chicago and 4-3 dropped the Bruins again for a count of 1 to 3.

Brooklyn swung a mean right and left for a double knockout of the Phillies, 7 to 2 and 8 to 3.

Detroit slipped another game away from the rank of contender by splitting with Chicago, winning the first 16 to 5 but losing the second 10 to 2.

Cleveland and St. Louis also divided arguments as the Browns won the first, 11 to 8 and lost the second 12 to 2.

With Horner out of the game the Cardinals took two on the chin from the Reds and were counted out, 5 to 0 and 9 to 0.

OPPOSE DEFENSE DAY

LYNCHBURG, Va., Sept. 2.—The Lynchburg League of women voters, meeting yesterday afternoon to arrange for a drive to get out the vote here at the November election, adopted a resolution in which it opposes national defense day.

The resolution, holding that "excessive military and naval preparedness is unwise and not in keeping with the traditional American policies."

DO YOU KNOW BASEBALL?

QUESTIONS

1.—Would you class Eddie Plank as a valuable pitcher as Rube Waddell? Who had the most stuff?—D. H. K.

2.—If a player slides into a base with such force that he causes it to break loose, must he follow the base, or is he entitled to the extra base, if previously declared safe?—S. A. H.

3.—Umpire calls time as a ball is thrown onto the playing field. The pitcher does not hear the call of time and delivers the ball to the batsman. The bases are out of the game. Runners who were on at the time. Do the runs count?—S. E. Y.

4.—It is the first of the ninth and the score is 2 to 0 in favor of the home team. Two hits and a base on balls have been made with the bases on. The pitcher is taken out and a substitute sent in. The three men put on the bases by the starting pitcher score before the side is retired. The home team is beaten 3 to 2. Who is charged with the defeat?—A. H. J.

ANSWERS

1.—As a winning pitcher, Plank was perhaps as valuable as Waddell. He didn't have a much stuff, and lacked the color of the erratic Waddell, but was a brainy, winning pitcher.

2.—The baserunner is entitled to the base. He cannot be held responsible because the bag broke away from its anchor.

3.—The runs do not count. It is unfortunate, but when the umpire called time play suspended and no action was possible. Batsmen hit over and players return to their original bases.

4.—The starting pitcher, who put the three runners on, who later scored, deciding the result, is charged with the defeat.

MURPHY IS WINNER OF 250-MILE AUTO RACE

(By The Associated Press)

ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 1.—Thrills plenty held 70,000 spectators almost breathless this afternoon as the 250 mile Labor Day automobile race came to a close with Jimmy Murphy the winner.

As the last few laps of the grind were being reeled off by the roaring motors, Joe Boyer, in second place, made a desperate effort to overtake Murphy's lead of more than a mile and a half.

Traveling at a rate of 125 miles an hour, Boyer within sight of the main grand stand, crashed through the guard rail at the top of the bowl. He was pinned in the wreckage and the spectators were in suspense as the other racers passed below the racing machine which hung as if from a slender thread over the track. Boyer, his legs injured, was conscious as he was rushed to a hospital where it was said both of his legs were crushed and his condition was considered serious.

Murphy's time was two hours, 47 minutes and 58.2 seconds. Tommy Milton in the running from the outset, was second and Fred Comer third.

While the fortunes of the race altered from time to time, Murphy, through his ability to keep up a constant, never-slacking pace of more than 100 miles an hour, virtually was assured of victory at the half way mark.

Ernie Ansterberg, Bernie Hill and Tommy Milton held the lead earlier in the race, but fire changes sent them to the rear.

The grind was featured by the driving of Antoine Mourre, the Frenchman. Out-distanced at first, he soon passed most of the roaring contestants and finally at 200 miles was in second place. But Milton forged ahead and the Frenchman found it impossible to overtake him.

Just before the race closed Mourre's car shot down the track to a small sand-baked section of mud. The machine disappeared in a cloud of dust.

A moment later Mourre was given a thunderous ovation when he drove his machine back on the track. This incident occurred near the spot where Boyer crashed.

Hill, with valve trouble, Ansterberg with motor trouble and Peter Paul with a frozen motor, were forced out of the race before the half way mark was reached. Depaulo came to grief when a flying newspaper wrapped itself about his radiator. He drove 15 miles with the paper hanging on and when forced to the pit his mechanic could not start the motor.

The other drivers finished this order: Phil Shafer, fourth; Earl Cooper, fifth; Mourre, sixth; Harlan Fenger, seventh; Red Carina, eighth; Bob Benson, ninth; Harry Hartz, tenth.

Murphy by virtue of his victory, took a firmer grasp on his lead for the 1924 national championship and won the first prize of $2,000. Milton won $1,500 and Comer $2,500.

A moment later Mourre was given a thunderous ovation when he drove his machine back on the track. This incident occurred near the spot where Boyer crashed.

Hill, with valve trouble, Ansterberg with motor trouble and Peter Paul with a frozen motor, were forced out of the race before the half way mark was reached. Depaulo came to grief when a flying newspaper wrapped itself about his radiator. He drove 15 miles with the paper hanging on and when forced to the pit his mechanic could not start the motor.

The other drivers finished this order: Phil Shafer, fourth; Earl Cooper, fifth; Mourre, sixth; Harlan Fenger, seventh; Red Carina, eighth; Bob Benson, ninth; Harry Hartz, tenth.

Murphy by virtue of his victory, took a firmer grasp on his lead for the 1924 national championship and won the first prize of $2,000. Milton won $1,500 and Comer $2,500.

WINS AUTO RACE

ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 1.—Thrills plenty held 70,000 spectators almost breathless this afternoon as the 250 mile Labor Day automobile race came to a close with Jimmy Murphy the winner.

As the last few laps of the grind were being reeled off by the roaring motors, Joe Boyer, in second place, made a desperate effort to overtake Murphy's lead of more than a mile and a half.

Traveling at a rate of 125 miles an hour, Boyer within sight of the main grand stand, crashed through the guard rail at the top of the bowl. He was pinned in the wreckage and the spectators were in suspense as the other racers passed below the racing machine which hung as if from a slender thread over the track. Boyer, his legs injured, was conscious as he was rushed to a hospital where it was said both of his legs were crushed and his condition was considered serious.

Murphy's time was two hours, 47 minutes and 58.2 seconds. Tommy Milton in the running from the outset, was second and Fred Comer third.

While the fortunes of the race altered from time to time, Murphy, through his ability to keep up a constant, never-slacking pace of more than 100 miles an hour, virtually was assured of victory at the half way mark.

Ernie Ansterberg, Bernie Hill and Tommy Milton held the lead earlier in the race, but fire changes sent them to the rear.

The grind was featured by the driving of Antoine Mourre, the Frenchman. Out-distanced at first, he soon passed most of the roaring contestants and finally at 200 miles was in second place. But Milton forged ahead and the Frenchman found it impossible to overtake him.

Just before the race closed Mourre's car shot down the track to a small sand-baked section of mud. The machine disappeared in a cloud of dust.

A moment later Mourre was given a thunderous ovation when he drove his machine back on the track. This incident occurred near the spot where Boyer crashed.

DUTY'S STATEMENT "ABSD"

HERRIN, Sept. 1.—When told of state's attorney Delos Duty's statement in which adjutant General Carlos E. Black was being a member of the Ku Klux Klan, the general said:

"I will not lend dignity to such an absurdity by denying Mr. Duty's statement."

Mr. Duty charged General Black with being a member of the Ku Klux Klan qualifying his statement by saying "that so far as I can learn, the general is a member of Ku Klux Klan. I have told any number of people that and I will stick to it."

"Perhaps," Mr. Duty continued, "that is why the general is so anxious to have the troops leave."

FINISH EVIDENCE IN KENDALL CASE

(By The Associated Press)

SPOTSVYLDIA COURT HOUSE, Va., Sept. 1.—Taking of testimony and argument in the trial of Charles S. Kendall for the murder of Dr. Robert B. Powell were concluded late today and the argument to the jury will begin tomorrow morning. Both sides closed their cases at 5 o'clock, after a day of severe cross-examination of all witnesses, during which the jury was kept out of the room four times while counsel argued various points on the admissibility of testimony.

The arguments dealt principally with the relations of Kendall and Powell with a woman.

Testimony of witnesses today was largely in rebuttal, dealing principally with an alleged visit by Kendall to the apartment over Duin's store. Mrs. Masten, former clerk at the store, declared the defendant and Mrs. Duin were alone in the apartment, with lights out, for two hours, while Mrs. Masten testified she saw Kendall leave the apartment and could swear he had been there at least one hour, with the lights out. The prosecution contends Kendall shot and killed Dr. Powell in a fit of jealousy over Mrs. Duin and not because of alleged insults by the physician to Kendall's sisters, as claimed by the defense.

SHELTON SAYS KLANSMEN STARTED TRAGIC FIGHT

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., Sept. 1.—Carl Shelton, one of the men wounded in a pistol battle that brought death to six men at Herrin Saturday, declared today the fight was started by Ku Klux Klansmen.

The Shelton brothers, whose dismissal at Herrin Saturday on a charge of having killed Constable Caesar Cagle, was followed by the clash, and a party of friends arrived here yesterday by automobile after an attempt, they said, by klansmen to intercept them on the Marion-Herrin road, about nine miles from Herrin.

Shelton declared that while "Tom" Thomas, a deputy sheriff, did most of the shooting, emptying three revolvers, neither Thomas nor Sheriff George Galligan shot Chester Reid, one of these killed. He added that a man named "Cowberry" killed Deputy "Bud" Allison during the shooting.
